Presidents' Letter

As we embark on a new year for our guild, I am very excited about working with my new board. We have a wonderful line up of classes this year along with the teachers that will provide their expertise and assistance in honing skills, or learning new ones. Thank you, Sue Bauer and Terri Mowery for all your hard work in lining up these excellent classes/programs. I think this will be another great year to be a guild member! If you have a friend you would like to bring to a meeting, you can bring them for free, one time, if they haven't been a member before. Otherwise, it will cost them $5.00. New potential members are always welcome!

I have decided to repeat Carol and Leann's challenge from last year to have everyone assist with something for our community service program, "Quilts To Share". The challenge ended at 76% participation for last fiscal year. Which isn't too bad, but I think we can all do better this next year! There are numerous tasks you can do to assist in this program. I would love to see 95%, but I'm secretly hoping for 100% involvement this year. How about it? I have re-listed the information from the newsletter from May 2017 that Carol and Leann used for examples of what you can do to get involved. These are listed below with some added comments:

Thank you and let's have another great year at Keepsake Quilt Guild!

2018-2019 PRESIDENT'S CHALLENGE

Our Presidents' challenge for 2018-2019 is to reach 100% participation in Quilts to Share!! Quilts to Share is Keepsake Quilter's community service program, so we want to place that in the forefront this year.

Who benefits from our quilts?

- 1) Bremwood Residential Treatment Center
- 2) Honor Flight pillow cases
- 3) Veterans quilts
- 4) Hospice quilts
- 5) Gifts to sell for auction or at the Quilt Show to raise money for Quilts to Share.

Jobs we need your assistance with:

- 1) Piece quilts (These are already cut and kitted up for you)
- 2) Quilt quilts (Great time to learn how to machine quilt)
- 3) Bind Quilts (Binding is cut, you just have to press it and work your magic, any way you want to attach it)
- 4) Wash fabric (If you fold it fresh out of the dryer, you don't need to even iron the wrinkles out)
- 5) Participate in Quilts to Share workshops
- 6) Iron fabric

QUILTS TO SHARE

JANET O'NEIL

Quilts to share work days are held each Monday of the month, except the third Monday (guild meeting day). Location: 4803 Cedar Heights Dr., Cedar Falls

Volunteers may drop in any time to assist with ongoing projects.

Additional help needed

Quilts to Share could use your help. We need quilters. Do you know that quilting can be done with a walking foot? You would just quilt in lines and not meandering. Please consider helping us. Just let me know if you want a pinned or unpinned quilt and I will bring it to the June meeting, or you can pick up quilts at Janet's home. Just call 266-9476 to make arrangements.

Thanks, Janet O'Neil

The 2018 Quilt show is fast approaching! Make sure it is on your calendar. We will be needing volunteers before, during and after the show. So keep that in mind as you plan your Fall calendar.

Right now the raffle quilt sales are open. If you don't have your tickets or need more, be sure to see Liz Wehrmacher at the June meeting. You should have a picture of the quilt in your packet to help with your sales pitch. It is beautiful. The quilt was pieced by Liz Wehrmacher and quilted by Julie Messerly. The large queen pattern is "A New Age" from Nancy Rink Designs .

The challenge category for this year's show is "Community Main Street Cedar Falls." Start working on your quilt for this category now. Your entry should depict Community Main Street, Cedar Falls as inspired by color, scenery, activities or ambiance. Entries may be any style or size.
