SCRAPS FROM THE PRESIDENT

Laura Sniffin

Hello Everyone,

This November 19th will be the last meeting of the year. NO December Meeting. I hope you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving and Christmas/Hanukkah, or whatever you celebrate for the season with your loved ones. I love this time of year! I love the snow with temps around 25 to 30 degrees (hopefully). You can play with your kids/grandkids or just make snow angels yourself in the snow! I hope my Husband comes and gets me back up before the thaw!

I'm sure you're making lots of gifts for the occasion and I hope we get to see some this next meeting before they get sent off. For our program, we will be showing the quilts that won ribbons from the Quilt Show! We will still have all of our other show and tells too!

Since this is our last meeting for 2018, we will be passing the kettle for the church again this year. This money goes toward helping families have a better holiday with food, clothing and toys. Please bring money to put in the donation kettle. Anything you can help with will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you all, Laura Sniffin

Thanks to everyone who contributed time, effort and talent to make the 2018 Quilts on Main a success!

Special Thanks to the quilt show committee who began work one year ago to begin generating new ideas for the 2018 show and seeing it through to implementation: Laura Richter, Deb Reuter, Peg Frost, Sue Bauer, Cynthia Foster, Dianne Mahood, Terri Mowery, Mary Mumm, Chris Lorenz, Liz Wehrmacher, Jenni Moravec, and Aleta Anderson.

Thanks everyone who entered your quilt in the show. Your quilts are what the show is all about! Our attendees were inspired by the beautiful art and detail they found in the display. Many were not aware of changes in quilting over recent years. They were pleasantly surprised.

We are grateful to Lucille Keeling for agreeing to be our featured Quilter for this year's bed turning. Her award winning applique and hand quilting drew appreciative audiences at each offering.

We thank ALL our volunteers who set up the show; greeted the public; pulled on the white gloves and answered questions; worked admission table; sold raffle tickets; assisted Quilts to Share and donation table; and generally helped out with a myriad of tasks. You are greatly appreciated. And thanks to the volunteers who took
