SCRAPS FROM THE PRESIDENT

Laura Sniffin

Happy New Year to you all! I hope you got to see all the family and got all the presents on your lists! I had a wonderful time with my family over the holidays!

Well, here we are in January 2019. The weather hasn't been bad at all, knock on wood, for Iowa. I hope you got to do some quilt shop shopping for your next projects. Maybe even a project for you now that the holidays are over? The next couple of months will go fast! So this is a reminder that we will need new officers for the guild in four months. I know it's early, but we all know how time seems to fly by! I will be asking for volunteers at our next meeting to form a nominating committee for the sole purpose of finding officers for next year. I would like 2 - 4 people for this committee. So, please volunteer, or talk a couple of friends into it. Your job would be to contact people about the offices that will be available for next year. You may even have some people come up and ask about open offices... it could happen!

I am looking forward to seeing all of you in a couple of weeks! It will be fun seeing what you've been working on, if it's still in the state! Remember to pick something up to work on for Quilts to Share at our next meeting so you can get your heart for the chart. I couldn't help myself, it rhymed. My challenge to all of you is to help Quilts to Share this year. I'm counting on you all! It's a new year and I'm ready to roll! I hope you are too! Our January Workshop is for Quilts to share too.
